WHY THIS BUSINESS

This legacy snack and concession distributor/manufacturer has produced and provided top quality snacks to stadiums, groceries, wholesalers, major events, and much more. Comes with full production equipment. This has an amazing amount of equipment. Location can easily be moved to a place convenient to you within the Tampa Bay area.

This is being sold as an asset sale for a quick release. The current owner is in their mid-70s and doesn't have the time or energy to run this business. At one time it was a phenomenally large company with locations of 85 different stadiums around the United States. It has a great reputation. Has systems in place and tons of equipment.

Family-owned business. The working family member that was running the business passed away, not long ago. The surviving spouse has not been working the business much for the last decade or so. They have a team of employees that run the business, but it needs some new leadership.
